ADMINISTRATION

For all of us, June seems to be a month of parting. This year, some of you end your Prairie career and begin preparations for your next step in formal education. Others will move to new cities and states, or perhaps a foreign country. Even for the majority who will return next fall, the summer seems like a separate and different life which -for now- will replace the daily Prairie experience.

We are all saying good-bye.

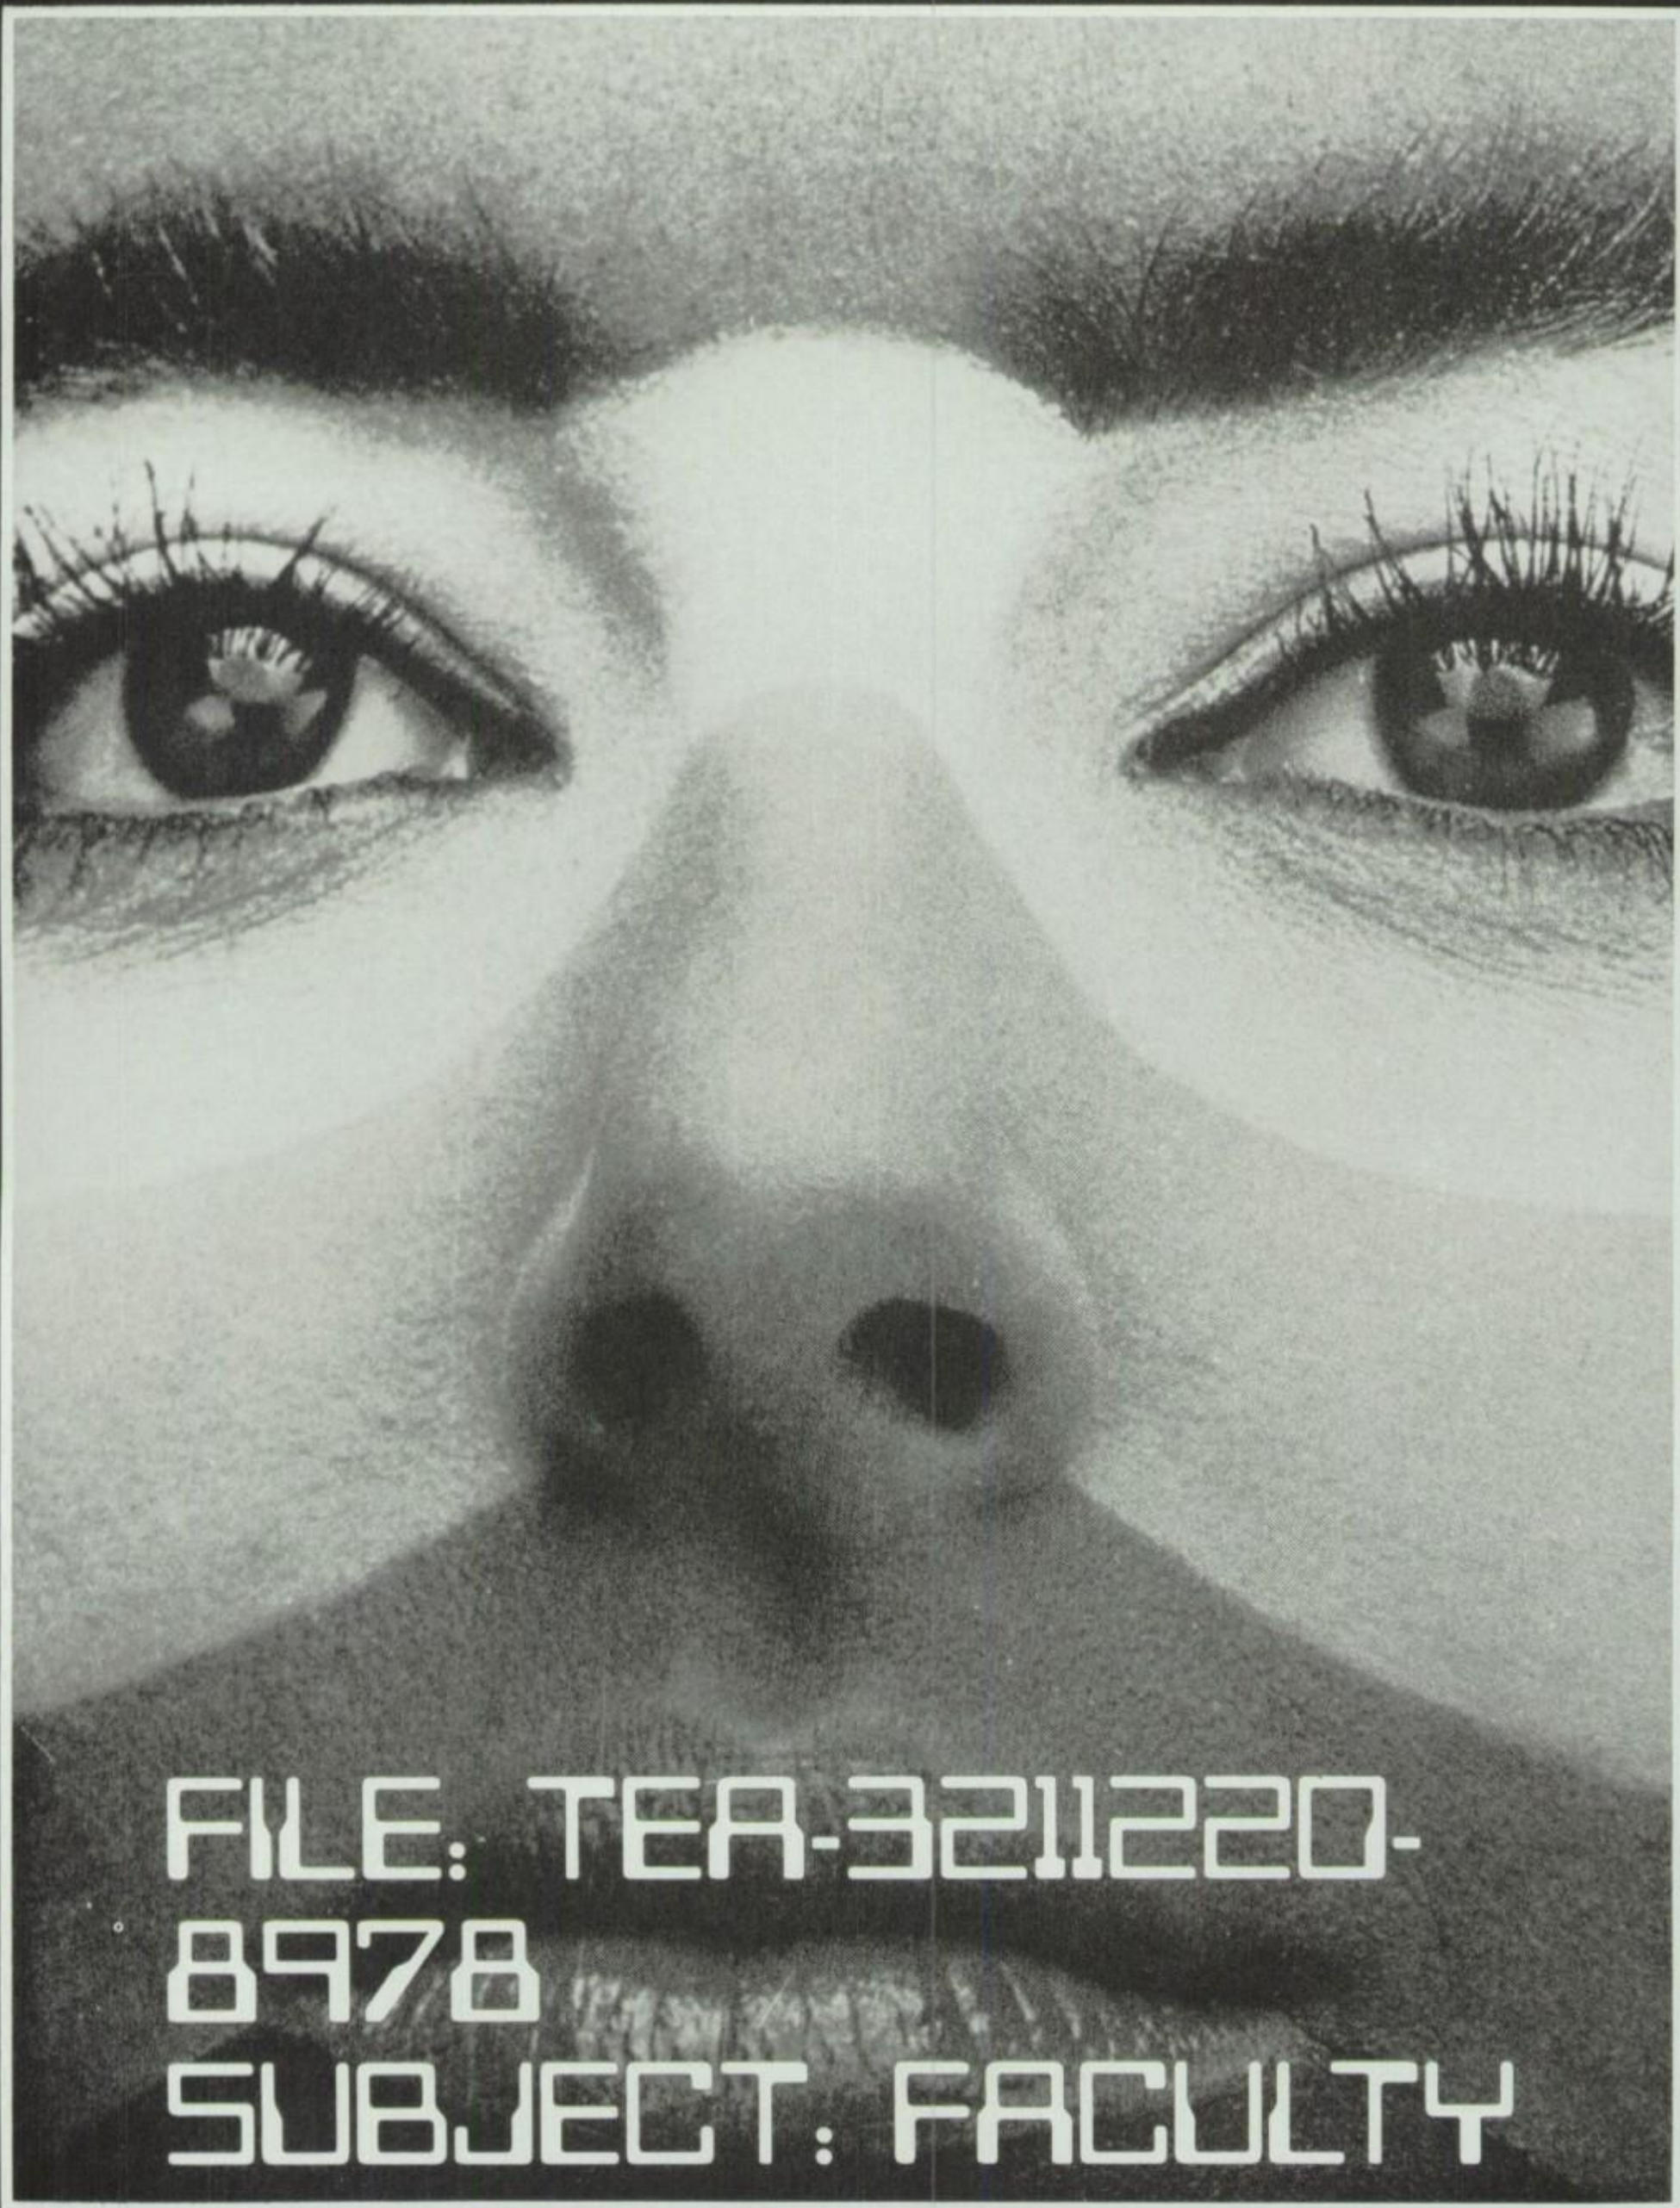

As you know, this is my last opportunity to write in Etcetera for you, as I am leaving Prairie for a new city and a new school. Of everything that I could say now, my strongest feelings are of gladness for having had these years with you. You have been a wonderful school family, and it is hard to leave behind the many friends who will still be here. However, the future beckons and promises new blessings for those of us who are moving on.

As we pass through our transitions, I think we will be rewarded by embracing the future with excitement, while holding on to what has been most valued in the past. Memories can live, friendships can stay alive - with just a little effort - and we can stay connected.

Warm wishes to all of you for happiness and success always!
